

Young Petroleum Engineers Holds Week

The Society of Petroleum Engineers Covenant University Students' Chapters (SPE-CUSC) recently held her 2010 Week with the theme, "Petroleum Engineering and the Petroleum Industry: an Undisputed Relationship for a Nations' Growth."

The Society of Petroleum Engineers Covenant University Students' Chapters (SPE-CUSC) recently held her 2010 Week with the theme, "Petroleum Engineering and the Petroleum Industry: an Undisputed Relationship for a Nations' Growth."

The event attracted dignitaries such as the Vice Chancellor, Professor Aize Obayan; Registrar, Dr. Daniel Rotimi; Dean, College of Science and Technology, Professor James Katende; Deputy Dean, School of Engineering and Technology and HOD, Petroleum Engineering, Processor Churchill Ako and other senior staff of the Department.

07/30/2010 04:19 am