

NUC Accredits Nine Covenant University Programmes

Another nine academic programmes of Covenant University presented for accreditation March-April have been fully accredited by the National Universities Commission (NUC), the apex regulatory body for University education in Nigeria

The cheering news is that all the nine programmes returned full accreditation status. The programmes are Business Administration, Industrial Relations and Human Resource Development, Management Information System and Marketing.

Others are Policy and Strategic Studies, English Language, Information and Communication Technology, Architecture and Computer Science.

It would be recalled that NUC rated Covenant University overall best in a Nationwide Accreditation Programme in her first outing in 2005. Other matured programmes have since been fully accredited by both NUC and professional accrediting bodies. To date all the 33 programmes of the University are fully accredited in addition professional programme are also fully accredited.
