

Covenant Student Wins NIMN/Unilever Best Marketing Student Award

Covenant University student, Miss Chinaemerem Peculiar Ubani, has emerged winner of the 2017 National Institute of Marketing of Nigeria (NIMN)/Unilever Nigeria Plc Best Marketing Student Award.

Miss Ubani beat competitors from about 62 other universities in Nigeria to the award. Another Covenant University student, Miss Ashade Oyindamola, emerged 6th overall.

As the winner, Miss Ubani was presented with a plaque, a textbook on Principles of Marketing, a Goodybag from Unilever Plc, and offer of employment after graduation.

Miss Peculiar Chinaemerem Ubani, Winner of the 2017 Unilever Plc's Best Student in Marketing Award

Vice-Chancellor, Covenant University, Professor AAA. Atayero, presenting the award to Miss Peculiar Ubani

Presenting the award to Miss Ubani, the Vice-Chancellor, Professor AAA. Atayero, lauded the outstanding achievement and announced to the University assembly that the Management was poised to showcase more outstanding feats of the students. He implored the students to work harder towards accomplishing greater things this year.

Miss Ubani became the second Covenant University student to win the award, as a student of the institution had first won it in 2011.

01/18/2018 01:42 pm